

The Sketchy Covid 19 Pandemic

(A Product of Bill Gates, the WHO, the WEF and China)

By Gary L Morton, Spring 2021

The World Health Organization (WHO) using news and announcements promoted the idea that drastic actions were needed to fight a new mystery virus from China. It began when the Wuhan Municipal Health Commission, China, reported cases of pneumonia in Wuhan. News reports out of China showed teams of men in white hazmat suits spraying outdoors on the streets. This was absurd propaganda as such methods would do nothing to stop a virus. There were claims of people dropping in the streets and other scary news.

The WHO set up the Incident Management Support Team and created a new publication in January 2020 called Disease Outbreak News. It dealt with the novel virus and put the WHO in control of world media stories on the virus. The WHO then issued a comprehensive package of technical guidance online with advice to all countries, putting them in control of any worldwide response. Next, they reported there was human-to-human transmission which led to a pandemic being declared. They falsely reported that SARS-CoV-2 was a novel virus when there are seven corona viruses similar to it in general circulation and many people already have some built in immunity to it Billionaire Bill Gates is the largest donor to the WHO. China and the USA are the WHO's other two large donors. WHO director Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesu sat on the board of global funds run by Gates, including a vaccine alliance. Like Gates he isn't a doctor. Tedros, a former leader of an Ethiopian Marxist-Leninist party, also has strong ties including financial ties to China. Tedros is a member of the Tigrayan People's Liberation Front linked to human rights violations in Ethiopia and he helped indebt Ethiopia to China. The WHO declared their pandemic just in time to save themselves 500 million dollars. They had pandemic bonds they would have pay out on if there was not a pandemic by 2020. Investors bought the bonds betting that a pandemic would not happen.

The IHME and Imperial College created the first covid 19 computer models and predicted mass death. These models proved wildly inaccurate. Both outfits receive strong funding from Bill Gates. The IHME model caused six US Democrat Party governors (Andrew Cuomo NY, Jay Inslee WA, Gretchen Whitmer MI, Gavin Newsom CA, Phil Murphy NJ, Tom Wolf PA) to send patients showing symptoms of viral infection into nursing homes, causing tens of thousands of deaths. The claim was their hospitals would fill up if they did not do so. Knowing that SARS-CoV-2 mostly kills elderly people did not stop them from doing this. Viruses in general are hard on old people and without doubt many people sent in had viruses that were not SARS-CoV-2, yet the deaths would be labelled as such. Some people suspect such incompetence is not possible and that they had other motives including damaging the re-election hopes of President Donald Trump. However, massive medical and political incompetence has been exposed since the beginning of the declared pandemic. Elderly people have been killed with remdesivir, heroin, ventilator pneumonia and midazolam, through being misdiagnosed, and also being sent into covid wards when they did not have covid 19.

The WHO's support of incorrect computer modelling helped convince health officials worldwide to take extreme interventions without evidence such actions would work. The argument the health ministers of most nations put forward was that extreme emergency laws were needed to prevent hospitals from being overwhelmed. The great crush of patients never came and covid 19 proved to be far less deadly. Even so, the extreme actions of politicians and officials continues unabated.

Initially they said 3 to 7 percent of people infected would die. That went down to a fraction of a percent, similar to the flu, and those at risk were mostly over 70. We now know that the covid 19 risk to the working age population is statistically insignificant. For the under 18's it is statistically zero. It has since been shown that lockdowns or non pharmaceutical interventions do not control viruses. Lockdowns are in fact an invention of Chinese dictator Xi Jinping and seeing leaders in the West imitate a dictator's civil liberties violations can only be described as shocking. The use of public health measures to create a police state, segregate people, remove all liberty and finally exterminate people was first pioneered by the Nazis, who did it with the support of the medical establishment, corporations, and media. We have seen a similar thing play out worldwide in 2020/21 as politicians, media, corporations and the medical establishment have disappointing behaved like bumbling Nazis.

A poll showed the public at large believes tens of millions have died, and that false belief has been instilled in them by media scare tales and constant headlines about the number of cases. Most of these cases are people with no symptoms. Never before have asymptomatic cases been counted during virus season. The covid 19 pandemic has proven not to be a genuine pandemic as the real death rates are really far lower than those of a pandemic. Much of the pseudo pandemic has been planned psychological warfare against the public at large, as evidence out of the UK showed. Health officials planned and caused mass hysteria and then worried about the psychological damage.

Dr. Anthony Fauci was on the leadership of Gates' Decade of Vaccines Project and had other collaborations with Gates. Bill Gates gave Fauci's National Institute of Health USA 100 million just as the pandemic was declared by the WHO. Since then, Fauci has pushed vaccines, testing, masks, everything Gates, the WHO and other globalist bodies want. Fauci worked extremely hard to prevent the authorization of early treatment drugs for covid 19. He did the same for AIDS years earlier when he blocked the use of a cheap drug named Bactrim that reduced deaths. Dr.

Fauci via National Institutes of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) which is a part of the US National Institutes of Health (NIH) was also instrumental in funding dangerous gain of function research at the Wuhan lab now thought to be the source of covid 19. Many people view Dr. Fauci with suspicion as he predicted a deadly virus would emerge during the term of President Trump.

The WHO's Peter Daszak was the early leading authority denying that SARS-CoV-2 came from a virus stored at the Chinese lab. The claim was that the virus passed to people via infected animals at a Chinese wet market. Researchers associated with the Wuhan Institute of Virology (WIV) and EcoHealth Alliance claimed the novel virus likely originated via natural selection in animal hosts, with its reservoir in bats. Then the coronavirus outbreak started in a wildlife market in Wuhan, the Huanan seafood market. Later it was found that Peter Daszak and EcoHealth Alliance funded dangerous gain of function research at the Wuhan Lab that most likely produced the virus. They were the go between for Fauci, the NIH and NIAD. Numerous scientific arguments have since arisen that cast doubt on any natural origin of SARS-CoV-2.

The truth is that SARS-CoV-2 (if it exists) was almost certainly deliberately or accidentally released in China. Many scientists claim that covid 19 is the result of an accidental release of a wild-type or lab-modified strain of a virus that had been stored in biosafety facilities conducting coronavirus research in Wuhan, such as the WIV or the Wuhan Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Chinese whistleblower Dr. Li-Meng Yan states that the backbone of SARS-CoV-2 was genetically engineered under the supervision of the Third Military Medical University in Chongqing. The epicenter of the outbreak during its earliest phase was the General Hospital of Central Theater Command of the PLA. That location is less than one mile from the P-3 level laboratory of the Wuhan Institute of Virology.

Gain of function research was part of the work of Shi Zheng-li who was called the Bat Lady. She mounted frequent expeditions to the bat-infested caves of Yunnan in southern China and collected around a hundred different bat coronaviruses. Shi teamed up with Ralph S. Baric, an eminent coronavirus researcher at the University of North Carolina. The researchers claimed they wanted to understand what changes were needed to occur in a bat virus's spike proteins before it could infect people. They focused on enhancing the ability of bat viruses to attack humans. In November 2015 a novel virus was created by taking the backbone of the SARS1 virus and replacing its spike protein with one from a bat virus. It is almost certain that SARS-CoV-2 is a chimera or manufactured virus able to infect the cells of the human airway. To make it super infectious they put a furin cleavage site at the S1/S2 junction.

Research Scientist Judy Mikovits has a different form of lab theory. She says SARS-CoV-2 initially spread through the use of vaccines contaminated via manufacturing practices. According to her, SARS-CoV-2 is a cloned monkey virus. The original bat coronavirus was grown in a Vero monkey kidney cell line contaminated with retroviruses, XMRVs and coronaviruses. She warns that the common practice of growing viruses in different animal cultures, including human cultures, is creating these Frankenstein viruses.

If there is any lesson the world should have learned from covid 19 it is that there must be an international agreement to end all dangerous gain of function research on viruses. Even the Wuhan BSL4 lab which was supposedly the safest still leaked a virus. The reason there is such a large effort to claim the virus was naturally spawned is that the pharmaceutical industry, often using people like Anthony Fauci wants to continue dangerous research on viruses and will do what is necessary to prevent dangerous behavior being exposed. If experiments in growing viruses are creating Frankenstein viruses, they would want to hide that as well as the fact that vaccine manufacture can inadvertently create dangerous viruses.

The WHO came up with the first approved covid 19 PCR tests. Using these inaccurate tests to mass test asymptomatic people makes sure the pandemic never ends. The creator of the PCR test, Kary Mullis said it was never to be used to detect infections. Dr. Christian Drosten created the version of PCR tests for supposedly detecting covid 19, without the virus. He stated that if we don't have the virus from Wuhan, we can make a synthetic gene to simulate the genome of the virus. And that is what he did, and the Landt biotech company he's connected to began making test kits for 1,500,000 tests a week. One study found PCR test result accuracy varied according to the time of day it was taken. The International Consortium of Scientists in Life Sciences (ICSLS), reviewed the Corman-Drosten (CD) paper which was used to justify the use of PCR testing, finding technical and scientific errors. They said that neither the test nor the manuscript itself meet the requirements for an acceptable scientific publication, calling it flawed science and its authors intellectually dishonest.

Anthony Fauci and the US Center for Disease Control convinced President Trump to go with mass testing and to allow vaccines at warp speed. Bill Gates also called for more rapid testing. It should be noted that the Center for Disease Control has also taken large donations from Bill Gates. The mass testing created the idea of a growing never-ending pandemic, when in fact most of the people testing positive had no symptoms and usually no disease at all. Contact tracing also began to add fake cases in many nations. They would list everyone recently in contact with a positive person as a case without knowing if they were really infected. The public health definition of a case of covid 19 became any person with a positive PCR test or listed via contact tracing. In the past a virus case was a patient with significant symptoms and usually hospitalized. With covid 19 hospitals created a Covid Related Illness tag, thus blurring the lines even more. Even now hospitals list people who have symptoms, but do not test positive as covid 19 cases.

PCR tests for covid 19 supposedly look for a small RNA sequence from the SARS-CoV-2 virus, yet Dr. Drosten admitted he didn't have the virus when creating the test kits. Some critics claim SARS-CoV-2 is not proven to exist so it can't be possible that the test kits find a correct RNA sequence. These people state that current methods of virus isolation are not credible scientific identification. We know that the CDC's Chinese consortium computer generated the SARS-CoV-2 genome on 10th January 2020. The genome is In Silico or computer simulated from a PCR sample taken from a patient with the Wuhan pneumonia virus and put through what is called a Blast tool that uses sequences from SARS, Wuhan-Hu 1 virus and a bat coronavirus. The National Institute of Health first registered the computer-generated genome sequence as genuine. As the first genome was computer generated so have all the following SARS-CoV-2 genomes by other nations been done mostly using NextGen software.

Virus samples are used for other traditional vaccines like the flu. Former Pfizer executive Michael Yeadon tried to find SARS-CoV-2 samples and could not. Apparently some isolated samples are to be found today, but they are all cultured in a monkey cell line not a human cell line. Research Scientist Judy Mikovits claims SARS-CoV-2 can't be grown in human cells because it is not a human to human transmissible disease. She says the PCR tests just pick up a grouping of viral pieces that is manufacturing contamination that people got from flu and other vaccines. When cultured in the monkey cell line they recombine as the SARS-CoV-2, a monkey viruse.

Viruses can't be separated from a host so they are cultured in host cells in a lab. What is called isolation today is not really that and some lab experts claim contamination prevents any true isolation. Some also argue that it is impossible to demonstrate that SARS-CoV-2 causes a disease called covid 19. There are some scientists who believe the entire virology field is in error. They believe that the infectious diseases are not caused by virus transmission. Before 1952 it was thought such diseases were caused by toxic proteins or enzymes that could be multiplied in the host and then spread to others. Nevertheless, scientists with the mainstream view state SARS-CoV-2 exists as a virus and that today's methods which are called isolation in host cells are valid. Critics state that SARS-CoV-2 has not truly been cultured in host cells either. This author had an illness in 2021 with symptoms similar to covid 19 such as temporary loss of taste, so a disease of some sort exists. There are always viruses in circulation and as covid 19 is really a family of symptoms, lots of viruses could get labelled as covid 19.

The number of cases the PCR tests find can be increased or decreased by changing the amplification of the test. Virus test kits never have a yes or no answer. They are calibrated to read a positive when a certain concentration is reached. Therefore, they could be calibrated to test everyone positive or negative or a mix thereof. The PCR tests lose all accuracy when done at over 33 cycles. Studies have shown over amplification produces 70 to 90 percent false positives. Now that much vaccination is underway the WHO and other outfits are proposing testing the vaccinated at low cycles and the unvaccinated at higher cycles. Another fraud that will make it look like the disease spreads mostly among the unvaccinated.

Covid 19 case counts did not start again at zero in 2021, allowing the media to create more scare stories showing hundreds of thousands of cases in many areas, without noting most of them are people who recovered. Early on the WHO directed all nations to include people in the death count who did not die of covid 19 but had tested positive before or after they died. This caused the death count worldwide to be massively inflated. A person could go into a hospital for any reason, say cancer, but get a positive test and end up listed as a covid death. In the USA hospitals tend to call all respiratory diseases covid 19 because they get a lot more money if they do. Since the symptoms list for covid 19 is broad it is easy to call just about anything covid 19. That is why the flu disappeared. It got called covid 19. Arguments that covid 19 measures like masks killed the flu or that covid 19 knocked it out of the game by being more transmissible are bogus. Coronaviruses, the flu and rhinoviruses have always come together in virus seasons. The CDC lumped pneumonia, influenza, and covid19 into a new epidemic it called PIC in order to inflate covid19 deaths.

UK Prime Minister Boris Johnson became the first salesman of the dangerous covid variants idea, and early papers on variants are co authored by Neil Ferguson, who created the scaremongering IHME models. The IHME is funded by Bill Gates. No variant (there are thousands of them) differs from the original sequence by more than 0.3%. We must remember that the SARS-CoV-2 genome is computer generated from one sample. This method involves so much computer guess work that it can't truly be said it is the genome of a real virus. Samples from different individuals all sequence the genome as something slightly different. Variants are just the inability to valid the template or original generated genome. Computer generation is done with samples from different people and computer simulation methods create the variant. Politicians and health authorities then change policies or make claims about the infectiousness of these variants without having done any detailed studies following people supposedly infected with them. Booster or top up shots are being produced without safety or effectiveness testing to treat these variants. People who have had the flu-like illness labelled as covid 19 already will have an immune response to any variant as they are just the same disease. Those who have had other coronaviruses will also have some built in immunity.

Boris Johnson met with Bill Gates and became a Gates vaccine disciple. He emerged calling the Gates-founded vaccine cartel, GAVI, the new NATO. Boris Johnson and his father are both advocates of depopulation. His father wrote a book on the subject. Bill Gates has also made statements on reducing population and his father was involved in the eugenics movement. The lead developer of the AstraZeneca vaccine, Adrian Hill, has been linked to the eugenics movement. And the Gates sponsored AstraZeneca vaccine is the one being used on the Third World. The WHO is also tied with groups promoting eugenics and mass abortion. The connection with depopulation and eugenics by the top players in the pandemic response is more than suspicious.

I should mention here that though I favor some studies and views on covid 19, many studies and reports on covid or its effects can only be illusions. First, the statistics on cases and deaths are not valid. The tests are notoriously inaccurate. The death counts can't be trusted for various reasons. That has the computer effect of Garbage in=Garbage Out. No studies, graphs, or aggregates can be relevant or accurate when the underlying statistics are corrupt and fraudulent.

The media scare stories on new variants, especially the B.1.1.7. variant emerged from outfits Bill Gates has heavily funded like SAGE and The London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine. Public Health England's study looked at nearly 100,000 cases along with a matched cohort. What is significant here is how the study details show how the danger of the variant has been exaggerated. The odds of hospital admission were not significantly higher for the variant. Most notable is that there were few deaths in both groups. Few deaths in both hospitalized groups means the variant can be made to look much more severe by using a percentage method. A couple or few deaths more in the variant group means they can say it kills say 28 percent more.

It has been noted how the variant studies use poor data that is hard to verify. Public Health England's study found no increased hospital mortality after adjusting for date of admission, age, gender, co-morbidities, and ethnicity. Again with variants like everything covid, the studies present the possibilities of errors or outright fraud that could make variants look dangerous when they aren't. Small errors, even a tiny rigging of the statistics can produce the desired dangerous variant that Big Pharma wants to justify more lockdowns and vaccines. Dr. Bonnie Henry, Health Minister of British Columbia stated in April 2021 that all positive cases will simply be assumed to be variants of concern. This like all covid fraud will become the way worldwide as they tell the public to live in fear of variant spread not even proven to exist. The dangerous variant propaganda serves the purposes of the global health tyranny emanating from the WHO, WEF and Bill Gates. Variants continue the pandemic with more booster vaccines via causing an international scare that closes borders. And deaths from vaccines can be conveniently blamed on variants.

Klaus Schwab of the World Economic Forum in February 2021 said the poor in third world nations starving because of covid 19 would get food packages only if their vaccination papers were up to date. Xi of China was guest of honor at 2021's WEF Great Reset forum. China is the model of a totalitarian social credit state they would like created in the West using covid 19 lockdowns, vaccines, vaccine passports and tracking systems as the vehicle. China has now issued a vaccine passport and signalled it would like to run a world vaccine passport system. The idea of the Chinese communists running such a system is a nightmare to all people who believe in freedom.

It was Bill Gates who partnered with the World Economic Forum on Event 201 simulating a pandemic just before covid 19 appeared. The Global Health Preparedness Monitoring Board of the WHO which includes Dr. Fauci, Bill Gates and the director of the Chinese CDC first called for a global simulation of the release of a respiratory pathogen. Event 201 was funded by Facebook co founder Dustin Moscovits thru his Open Philanthropy group. He invested heavily in testing before the Pandemic or Plandemic. Later when a pandemic was declared Michael Bloomberg, the Zuckerberg Foundation and Gates Foundation were put in control of the data nations share on their pandemic response Klaus Schwab's The Great Reset book was mailed to all the politicians and health bureaucrats in the world, to get them onboard with using covid 19 to facilitate a Great Reset. The plan for a world technocracy of the super rich also uses the Build Back Better mantra spouted by politicians worldwide. Macron in France, Trudeau in Canada, Joe Biden in the USA all spout the Build Back Better nonsense. Build Back Better is really a digital surveillance world where the middle class become another class of the poor, owning nothing. Things like the Green New Deal and Climate Change policies are part of the plan to impoverish the middle class into people who don't drive, eat meat or own small businesses and property.

The vaccines were patented originally as gene therapy. They are not traditional vaccines. The reason they are labelled vaccines is so they can be put into emergency use with no liability. The makers, government and those who distribute them don't have to worry about deaths or side effects because they don't have to pay out. Would you buy a car if you knew it could blow up and cripple you, and the cost goes on you because the car company isn't liable. Big Pharma companies have paid billions out in the past due to damages from their drugs and vaccines. They are not trustworthy companies. What makes them even less trustworthy this time is their actions to block early treatments with antivirals etc. that could have saved most of the people who died.

Reports on the dangers regarding the experimental mRNA vaccines and other covid 19 vaccines are widely suppressed by the media. The mainstream media in fact acts as a propaganda arm for Big Pharma and vaccine extremists, using psychological methods rather than informed consent to convince the public that experimental vaccines are health boosting miracle cures. The Trusted News Initiative, an alliance of major media outlets and big tech monopolies including Associated Press, The Washington Post, Facebook, the BBC, CBC/Radio-Canada, Microsoft, and the New York Times works to make sure all news is pro vaccine and pro lockdown and masking narratives. The idea that corrupt media should control debate on medical issues is absurd. It is obvious that mainstream media, government bureaucrats and politicians don't want to seriously address solid arguments against vaccines or arguments in favor of early treatment that has led many people to recover. They prefer open censorship.

Bill Gates was a major sponsor of covid vaccines, and he controls much media. Media that gets so much paid advertising from Big Pharma simply can't be trusted. Bill Gates is heavily involved in all things to do with viruses and vaccines. There are cases where research is funded by him, media reporting on the research is funded by him and the resulting program or vaccine is funded by a Gates-funded NGO. Bill Gates even gave a grant to the Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA) of UK, creating the scary scenario of billionaire vaccine extremists controlling the approval of vaccines. Bill Gates now controls Swissmedic, the FDA of Switzerland. Gates also funds and controls much media. He has given huge sums to the BBC, NBC, Al Jazeera, ProPublica, National Journal, The Guardian, Univision, Medium, the Financial Times, The Atlantic, the Texas Tribune, Gannett, Washington Monthly, Le Monde, the Center for Investigative Reporting, New York Times, the Pulitzer Center on Crisis Reporting, the National Press Foundation, and the International Center for Journalists. Bill Gates gave the seed money to start the vaccine company Moderna, and he sponsored the AstraZeneca vaccine. Gates donated to nearly all the scientific institutions that investigated vaccine side effects.

Bill Gates planned censorship of vaccine skeptics in October 2019 as part of Event 201 staged with the World Economic Forum. In an exercise where members played a Pandemic Control Council, Gates along with representatives from the World Bank, WEF, CIA, CDC, various media conglomerates, the Chinese Government, a PR firm and a vaccine manufacturer planned future censorship and centralization of information. The participants discussed flooding the media with pandemic propaganda called good information to block misinformation, and imposing penalties for spreading alleged falsehoods. They recommended creating algorithms to sift information on social media platforms to protect the public from dangerous thoughts and information. They also discussed countering claims any virus was manmade. They support the concept of One Voice, One Message. Which is government, media, academia as one Big Brother trumpet, telling the people what is good for them and what they must do.

The World Economic Forum today uses the PR company Publicis Group to discredit all those who oppose covid 19 vaccines and lockdown tyranny. The Publicis Group owns NewsGuard, which works to label alternative media fake news. NewsGuard also partners with Bill Gates, the WHO and the US Department of Defense. Publicis represents Merc, Pfizer, J&J, GlaxoSmithKline, Google, Amazon, Facebook and Twitter. Their primary goal is to manipulate your beliefs with emotion and fear in order to control you. Publicis is behind the network of censorship and manipulative media. They have launched a new service called HealthGuard which labels those that criticize vaccines as national security threats. They also have a new propaganda arm called Vax Facts. The WHO is using a service called Health Feedback, and it is doing fact checks for Facebook and recently applied censorship to a legitimate Wall Street Journal article on covid 19.

Research opposing lockdowns, masks, vaccines etc. is suppressed by mainstream media and social media. The mainstream media has been mostly a cheerleader supporting draconian laws and censorship. Big Media and tech giants like Twitter, Facebook etc. engaged in and are still practicing criminal censorship of anyone presenting evidence against lockdowns because they profit from the lockdowns. The large mass of people is forced to stay home and consume their products. More than 100,000 medical personnel and doctors are on the public record opposing the vaccines. Some of the world's top virologists oppose the vaccines, seeing no need for mass vaccinations. The Great Barrington Declaration, signed by more than 30,000 health scientists and medical doctors from around the world, expressed their serious concerns about damaging physical and mental health impacts of the prevailing covid-19 policies. They recommended an approach of Focused Protection of those most at risk while allowing those who are not vulnerable to resume normal life. The London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine (LSHTM) received 250 million from Bill Gates and has functioned as his attack dog against those sceptical of covid policies and vaccines.

The authorities using censorship always use the Science as an excuse. Someone is saying something that doesn't align with the Science. Or their decisions are justified by the Science. The Science really is judgement calls from a powerful elite. They initially made a judgement call to oppose wearing masks. Then they made a judgement call that mask mandates were needed. Politicians and health authorities brought in lockdowns and ten thousand draconian rules based on judgement calls. The decisions to denounce early treatment drugs and the doctors doing early treatment were judgement calls. The decision made to push experimental vaccines on the world was a judgement call. Few things they have done are backed by solid indisputable science. The real SCIENCE is that the effective measures against viral outbreaks historically are listed as hand washing and isolation of the sick. Ineffective measures have been listed as large-scale quarantines, border closures, school closures, social distancing and masks. Dr. Fauci admitted on CNN that they don't go by science. He said that when you don't have the data and evidence you make a judgement call. But the truth is they've been making judgement calls all along even when the evidence and data shows their calls to be wrong. And that is the Science now used to censor any criticism of vaccines.

There are indications that the vaccines could cause many auto immune diseases, sterilization, and death at a later date when the body encounters a virus and overreacts. The number of early bad reactions and deaths reported is large. Pregnant women are especially in danger from these vaccines yet nations like Canada are pushing the vaccines on the pregnant. Experimental treatments are never recommended for broad use in pregnant women, yet with these vaccines they are simply ignoring all common sense and behaving like criminals. The Bill Gates sponsored AstraZeneca covid 19 vaccine has been stopped by a number of nations over blood clots. In the EU, hospital staff and other front-line workers began to call in sick after getting the AstraZeneca vaccine. They found that this vaccine has wicked early side effects on even healthy young workers. Canada has now decided to give the toxic vaccine to its seniors, a very unwise decision. Giving these vaccines to anyone is an unwise, even criminal decision since informed consent can't be given. New reports of deaths from the AstraZeneca vaccine in Italy and Austria have appeared in media. The vaccine makers even produce huge bad batches such as happened with the J & J vaccine, where they manufactured a lot of it with the ingredients incorrect. We can't even trust that what they are putting in our arms is what they say it is.

Continuing panic using covid variants (now referred to as scariants by critics) that have not been proven dangerous is being used to drive worldwide vaccinations and tracking systems. Bill Gates and his vaccine outfit GAVI plus Microsoft are involved a group called ID2020 that wants digital certificates for everyone on the planet. These would contain health and other information. Gates said they would be used to identify who received vaccines and who can conduct business or not. ID2020 is also backed by the United Nations and the Rockefeller Foundation. The idea is for a wealth of personal information that would go beyond the limits of national governments. This idea would create the largest privacy violation in history as your health records are supposed to be separate and private. It would erase personal and national sovereignty. There is simply no outfit that can be trusted with the personal information of everyone and no way to secure such information from corrupt entities. It is a straightforward mechanism for world totalitarian control by an elite.

The Smart Vaccination Certificate Working Group, whose partners include WHO, UNICEF, ITU and the European Commission is also working on a pass. There is a CommonPass digital health app being developed by the Commons Project Foundation (CPJ), which was founded by the Rockefeller Foundation and is supported by the World Economic Forum. If not blocked, this coming vaccine regime will cause the loss of bodily and personal autonomy. The whole idea behind it is mission creep. The Vaccine Collective Initiative calls its passport a Smart Health Card, and Microsoft Health said such cards could be used as IDs for commercial activity. They are already starting to refer to such passports as a Digital Wallet. The US administration of President Joe Biden discussed vaccine passports, even for people to buy and sell, like the mark of the beast in the bible.

Bill Gates has also paid for the research of various tracking systems including tattoos placed on a person's hand. He is now calling for everyone to receive a third vaccine shot for covid variants, which would enrich Big Pharma even more. Covid 19 has proven to be more propaganda than disease. They pushed panic, masks, lockdowns, endless extreme rules followed by the smooth propaganda rollout of vaccines. Without doubt the upcoming propaganda filling most of the media will be about dangerous variants, vaccine passports and tracking systems, along with forcing the vaccines on the young and those who refuse it. A huge future danger is that vaccinating everyone will put evolutionary pressure on coronaviruses and create deadly new strains. One virologist stated that these strains could emerge in the vaccinated. The vaccinated have one immune response making it easy for a coronavirus to mutate around the specific antibody response. Trying to vaccinate everyone is a criminal mistake when long term effects are not known. These people are determined to harm everyone in the name of public health.

Bill Gates pushed for mask mandates and he called for shaming people who don't wear masks, comparing non wearers to nudists. He believes the U.S. failed in its response to covid 19 because people support individual freedom. Gates and most public health officials believe in controlling the masses and masks are a way to do it. Health and government officials without scientific evidence created extreme mandates and people began wearing masks alone in their cars and when they were nowhere near anyone in open sunny parks.

Viruses are believed to spread via aerosols if an infected person is coughing nearby, but masks won't block tiny aerosols containing virus particles as these aerosols are as small or smaller than cigarette smoke aerosols. Indoors the aerosols travel 26 feet by studies and linger in the air from one to three hours. That means indoor settings need ventilation methods that would disperse the virus and replace stagnant air with fresh air. Viral load or how much virus you encounter is important. Being indoors near an infected person for a period of time could increase how much virus you encounter in the air making infection more likely. Also, the more virus that infects you initially, the worse the infection. It is prolonged encounters with the infected that must be avoided to decrease spread. Keep in mind though that a recent study attempting to prove aerosol transmission was unable to find infectious virus in the aerosols.

It is painful to hear doctors and medical experts constantly say covid patients come into the hospital with low oxygen levels, yet none of these experts ever dares to point out that wearing masks months on end destroys your oxygen levels and weakens you for infection. The actual data new and old shows that masks do not stop viral infections. The masks say on the box that they are not respirators and can't stop viruses. The virus SARS-CoV-2 has a diameter of 60 nm to 140 nm, while medical and non-medical facemasks' thread diameter is more than 1000 times larger. A recent systematic review of 39 studies including 33,867 participants in community settings, found no difference between N95 respirators versus surgical masks and surgical mask versus no masks in the risk for developing influenza or influenza-like illness.

Chronic mild or moderate hypoxemia and hypercapnia from wearing facemasks results in a decrease in pH levels and an increase in cells and blood acidity, toxicity, oxidative stress, chronic inflammation, immunosuppression and health deterioration. Breathing through masks continuously challenges the body homeostasis, causing self-toxicity and immunosuppression.

Here are recorded physiological, psychological effects and health consequences of wearing masks.

Hypoxemia, Hypercapnia, Shortness of breath, Increased lactate concentration, Decline in pH levels, Acidosis, Toxicity, Inflammation, Self-contamination, Increase in stress hormones level (adrenaline, noradrenaline and cortisol), Increased muscle tension, Immunosuppression.

Activation of "fight or flight" stress response, Chronic stress condition, Fear, Mood disturbances, Insomnia, Fatigue, Compromised cognitive performance.

Increased predisposition for viral and infection illnesses, Headaches, Anxiety, Depression, Hypertension, Cardiovascular disease, Cancer, Diabetes, Alzheimer disease.

The first purpose of masks is fear. People wearing masks confirm the invisible enemy. It keeps it in the public mind that the invisible enemy is everywhere, and they must comply to fight it. Masks keep the armies of fearful hypochondriacs rushing in for tests every time they sneeze, cough or get a mild headache. These hypochondriacs are the government's secret army, obeying and enforcing mad dictates more suited to the Black Plague than a mild virus.

Masks are unhealthy and damaging to psychological health. Masks dehumanize people, separate people, teach people not to touch each other and to fear others. Once taught not to socialize people are easily controlled, won't organize and protest and fit into an online work world. Masks are also now a new environmental disaster. Approximately 1.5 billion face masks are expected to be dumped into the sea in just one year. Single-use face masks are made from a variety of melt-blown plastics. The masks will contribute an estimated 7,000 tons of plastic to the oceans and take 450 years to break down.

US and Chinese military outfits were involved in the creation of dangerous viruses at Wuhan as were the US and Chinese CDC and US NIAD via Dr. Fauci and Ralph Baric. Others at the top of the covid 19 pyramid are Bill Gates, the WHO, the World Economic Forum, Big Pharma, the Build Back Better politicians and a cabal of global billionaires and their minions. They are key in running the fake pandemic using allies worldwide in business, medicine, government, and mainstream and social media. Often, they are paid allies. The motivation of these people needs little analysis. They have an elite worldview and are greedy, immoral and want power and control over the planet. The philanthropy of billionaires has been shown to often be self serving and often their foundations are money laundering operations. The world's richest increased their wealth by 2.1 trillion dollars in the first year of the pandemic.

The resulting tyranny though is not just the result of actions from the top. Covid 19 exposed a corrupt class of politicians and bureaucrats existing worldwide. Small-minded people who have enjoyed this opportunity to get onstage and play tyrant with mask mandates, lockdowns and many invasive and offensive rules. It has become obvious that in the West these people are not the liberty minded folks of the 50s to say 2010. They have become shallow, corrupt, and lacking in education regarding freedom of speech, assembly and religion. They don't believe in a free economy with the right to work and run a business. Civil liberties are something they see as unnecessary. Our politicians and institutions are now functioning as the ideological police force of the globalist and billionaire overclass and they act to trample on the rights and liberties of the underclass.

We have to consider the motivation of some of these politicians and bureaucrats. Some are ideologically on board with the WEF's Great Reset and willing to use this for ideological ends. Even worse, many of them are doctors and have been sponsored in research and other areas by the same Big Pharma companies that produce the vaccines. They are in the pocket of vaccine manufacturers. Politicians bought into the pandemic, forced lockdowns and other extremist rules. They destroyed the lives of tens of millions of people and they will never admit they were wrong. The solution they want is a propaganda victory. The public is to be fooled by a great vaccine rollout. There will be vaccine heroes and in the end the public will think their leaders did the right thing. A large group of these politicians and bureaucrats are those who have believed the narrative from the moment it was rolled out. They believe in being politically correct, obeying orders from the top, and the power of government to control people and thus defeat a tiny virus. Some are simply at war with a virus and are willing to sacrifice everything else and all of us on their Captain Ahab road to victory. And they are willing to silence anyone who disagrees with them.

We must consider that covid 19 which is really just a grouping of symptoms is not particularly dangerous to most people, especially if doctors apply early treatments. In other words, it is already known that the disease is manageable without extremist government lockdowns and other interventions. US states that opened have shown that massive interventions aren't helpful. A key to this problem has been public health officials who lack education, with many even admitting they have no concept of civil liberties or even the economic well being of nations. Societal problems are managed. We don't shut down to fight heart disease, crime or obesity. We manage the problems and keep the life blood of the economy flowing. The day the WHO was forced to admit that the death rate for healthy people under 70 is 0.05% or less than the flu which is 0.1% is the day all talk of lockdowns should have ended.

When people are at such minimal risk an experimental vaccine shouldn't be pushed as the only solution. Treatment would be better yet all the same suspects pushing covid 19 panic opposed early treatment and did everything possible to discredit early treatment drugs. After the phase of people like Fauci speaking publicly against early treatment drugs like hydroxychloroquine open censorship began on social media. Fauci and others would claim evidence of recovery via early treatment drugs is anecdotal or there are no double-blind studies. They would even do that after promoting masks when there were no studies showing masks worked. The result was that worldwide most of the population did not get offered early treatment. Instead, we saw ventilator deaths inflating the death count. Early in the outbreak ventilators were touted as a cure all and improper use of them killed people across the world. Most of these people could have received oral treatment drugs etc. Those with some difficulty breathing should have been given nasal cannula oxygen but instead were intubated and IV fed tranquilizers on a ventilator, where the pressure was constantly increased as the lungs inflated and weakened until death arrived.

There are a number of early treatment programs prescribed by doctors where early treatment is allowed. They include prescription drugs such as hydroxychloroquine, ivermectin, budesonide, prednisone. Vitamin D greatly reduces the spread of all respiratory viruses, and is more effective when taken with vitamin C, quercetin and zinc. A majority of people who get infected with covid 19 are vitamin D deficient and those that are deficient are more likely to get serious disease and die. Three to four thousand IUs of D daily is best from fall to spring. There are studies that show gargling with salt or antiseptic mouthwash daily reduces a person's chance of getting a respiratory infection. Hand washing has long been recommended to prevent viral spread as a person can pick up virus particles by touching common items that an infected person touched or coughed on. Recent studies did not find transmission from the presence of viruses on surfaces to be much though. Nations around the world that have ignored early treatment have caused many people to die. It should also be noted that covid 19 death rates are 10 times higher in nations with more than 50% the population overweight, yet no government promoted weight loss. One reason why vaccines are pushed in nearly every nation while early treatment drugs are banned is corruption. The FDA gets 45% of its budget from Big Pharma. The WHO gets roughly half its budget from private sources, including Pharma and its foundations. The CDC is a vaccine company that owns 56 vaccine patents. The US Health and Human Services partners with vaccine makers then shares profits from vaccine sales. HHS employees can collect up to $150,000 annually in royalties for products they work on.

Lockdowns come with an enormous price. Authorities who argued that attacking the economy and cancelling all medical services but late stage covid treatment stand out as some of the cruellest elitists in history. Never in the past has poverty, denying medical treatment and putting millions out of work saved lives. Lockdowns were and are a direct attack on women who have suffered the most job loss, evictions etc. In general, lockdowns are a war on small business and low income workers at home, and the poor worldwide where millions face starvation because of the effects of lockdowns. Young people and school children have very little risk from covid 19. Much less than the flu. Yet governments shut down schools, even when the evidence came out that there was extraordinarily little spread in schools. The result is a huge increase in psychological problems in the young. Most people don't realize it but statistics showed very little spread from restaurants either. Since lockdowns can't stop a virus, they can only be an attempt to slow the virus, thus prolonging the time it takes to reach herd immunity. Instead of stopping the spread the lockdowns simply shifted more spread to working class areas with essential workers, and to immigrant areas where there are more people per household, while infections decreased for the wealthy laptop class who stayed home and ordered in their groceries.

Lockdowns are often the result of compromised politicians and health ministers. Ontario Premier Doug Ford is one example. He made tens of millions in one year via severe lockdowns in Ontario. The lockdowns, social distancing and mask mandates made enormous profits for his signage and label company that made the covid warning signs and labels that are everywhere in stores, public buildings etc. Toronto's health chief Eileen de Villa called constantly for more severe lockdowns, yet her husband is connected to Pfizer, the vaccine maker that wants lockdowns as punishment to convince the public to get vaccinated in order to be free. Eileen de Villa was also a long-time employee of the UN and interned with them, and as we all know, the UN and its connected body WHO are the root of covid 19 fraud and tyranny around the world. In general, worldwide we find that politicians have motives other than public health.

It is well known that morbid obesity is a huge covid 19 risk and lack of exercise weakens immunity. Yet the extremist lockdown crowd keeps promoting the same restrictions that caused 42 percent of people to gain weight in the first lockdowns. In the name of health, they have encouraged people to stay home and wear two masks. Across the planet, politicians ordered gyms closed, along with countless other businesses. They seem to forget that working provides exercise for most people. Mask mandates discouraged outdoor as well as indoor exercise, then there were playgrounds, national parks, and hiking trails closed. All this creates more emotionally and physically unhealthy people, who will be hit harder when new viruses arrive, and who will have more co-morbidities.

Democracy itself has been attacked by the lockdown fanatics. Governor Cuomo of New York revealed the tyrannical mindset of these politicians and bureaucrats when he declared he could do anything just to save one life. And he's the man who killed thousands in nursing homes by putting infected people in them. The lockdown proponents have destroyed far more lives than they saved, and many studies now show their lockdowns did not stop viral spread. They removed most of the safeties put in place in democratic nations to prevent such authoritarian actions. Lockdown extremists went so far as to prohibit people from different homes from having sex, and they discussed allowing people to leave their homes only once a week as well as making it illegal to talk to others on the street and in supermarkets. They talked about special quarantine centers for anyone violating rules, special police powers to break into homes of suspected violators, and they even arrested and beat people for distributing food to the poor. The media has had daily stories of police and bureaucrats abusing lockdown powers. One hundred nations imposed new restrictions on freedom of speech and the press and some also blocked web sites. Often this was just a tool to silence people who criticize governments and health officials. And the sad truth is they often used manipulated and fraudulent data or no data or science to justify such actions.

There is no guarantee for anyone that they won't catch a virus at some time and even die from it, but for most people the risk of being overcome by a virus is much less than the risk of taking an untested vaccine. Even with vaccines governments ignore science. The idea of vaccinating the young population of Africa, providing vaccines instead of food is absurd. The younger populations in many of these poor nations have little to fear from covid 19. Brazil experienced high infections tied to overcrowded housing and transportation, dense households with poor ventilation and lack of clean water and hygiene. Vaccines aren't the solution for those sorts of problems.

Canada donated 800 million dollars to a Gates NGO to vaccinate the world's poor. People who need food far more than they need a vaccine. In North America they estimate there are a million undiagnosed cancers because of the lockdown effect on hospitals. There is a huge backlog of other undiagnosed diseases and people who need treatment. The governments of the world apparently decided to try and save people from covid 19 but let them die of everything else. The result being they even failed to stop covid 19, with the only places boasting any success with draconian lockdowns being isolated islands like Hawaii, New Zealand, and the continent of Australia. Covid 19 also came there first in the summer making it easier to suppress, while in

New York it came in the winter.

We should look at what the most important priorities of Gates and the WEF might be.

Bill Gates like Dr. Fauci believes in a vaccines only approach to medicine. A crazy idea that nearly all disease can be treated with vaccines. Gates' top priorities are world population control and vaccinating everyone on the planet. He has claimed in a Ted talk that vaccines will reduce world population by 15%. Elites that want to decrease world population are detached from reality. Hans Rosling has demonstrated with statistics that world population will climb to near 11 billion then level off. Most growth is in Asia and Africa. That means preparing for a planet of 10 billion plus by 2100. Pollution including plastics does create a parallel threat, where due to increasing infertility human populations could collapse. Gates is also a Climate Change extremist who wants the world to eat meat grown from fungus, which will be provided by him. His brand of GMO farming and other ideas like dimming the sun could cause worldwide famine.

The World Economic Forum's top priority is control of everyone on the planet, for a future world government with a system like China's social credit system which allows no freedom and no dissent, and which leaves a large segment of the population unproductive and reliant on government handouts. Bill Gates' vaccine tracking systems and vaccines supply a method of complete future control over humanity using public health as a mask to hide totalitarianism. Their utopia is a technocracy controlled by the elite. This desire for complete control is really a psychological disorder. Many wealthy elites see the world population as employees they can use or dispose of at will. Many think that due to transhumanism, robotics etc. that 3 to 4 billion people will be unemployed in the near future. These are people they think they have a right to discard or cull.

Causing small and medium size businesses to go under worldwide is allowing billionaires to buy up everything. The WEF wants a future where you own nothing, everything is rented. And of course, it will be rented from them after they gobble up all competitors and real estate using their scandemic. This fact tells us that they may continue with versions of this pandemic using variants for years as they seize control of all business worldwide and enslave the population. PCR tests as mentioned earlier in the article make it so the pandemic can't end. As long as testing is out there gathering false positives, they will bring in more lockdowns every fall and winter.

It is becoming clear that covid 19 is being used to mask a hidden agenda that is not public health. Here are the key features of the hidden agenda.

- To get people comfortable with injected medical technology that uses a nano particle delivery system to deliver many things. They could alter your health but more importantly monitor everything for use by Big Data companies, being even able to tell if you lie etc. And then use this for setting your score in a Digital Social Credit system that will control your access to jobs, services, life in general.
- Usurping the authority of nation states, turning politicians into puppets while creating rule via the UN and a wealthy global elite.

- An international health dictatorship that uses vaccine passports and eventually mandatory vaccines to feed a Global Digital ID Database, that will contain nearly all information about you. They also want digital banking that puts them in control of your money.
- A Global ID/Social Credit System. The UN will appoint China or perhaps a committee from various nations to run it.
- World Governance. Once world control is set up via the health dictatorship anything is possible from population control via vaccines to limiting how much carbon a person uses.
- Monopoly Capitalism. Enormous profits from vaccines plus giant corporations and billionaires will control nearly all commerce. Lockdowns destroy small business; the giants take their markets. And the globalist corporations reward China for doing its part in shutting the West by shifting more industrial jobs there.
- Socialism for the Masses. Most of the world's population will be renters who own nothing.
- Totalitarian Control. Dissent and free speech will not be tolerated. To participate in society you will have to recite and live approved narratives only. This begins with Medical Apartheid, a system that punishes and censors healthy people for not complying with the health dictatorship.
- A Class Structure. The world controllers and owners, those they appoint as political leaders, bureaucrats, influencers, those who work on regular jobs, those who are kept on welfare via a universal basic income, and outcasts who oppose the state.

The WHO, Big Pharma, every agency has rolled the dice on vaccines. As they did not do the critical long-term animal tests, they don't know whether or not people will see an immune overreaction when they encounter coronaviruses next season. That is what happened in earlier animal tests in the development of similar vaccines over the last 15 years, and if it happens with humans huge numbers of people will get sick and die. In the earlier animal tests the animals developed antibodies and short term immunity, but when that wore off and they were exposed to the wild virus they got sick and died from ADE.

The authorization for these vaccines was based on safety data generated during trials that lasted less than 3.5 months. According to the US Vaccine Adverse Effect Reporting System (VAERS), the number of deaths per million vaccine doses administered has now increased more than 10-fold. The EU also reports a high vaccine death and adverse reaction rate. Most trials also excluded those with prior exposure to SARS-CoV-2 along with the elderly, pregnant and those with serious conditions such as tuberculosis, hepatitis C, autoimmunity, coagulopathies, cancer, and immune suppression. These groups are now being offered the vaccine under the premise of safety.

There are more serious safety questions. The recently identified role of the SARS-CoV-2 spike protein for inducing endothelial (blood vessel) damage characteristic of COVID-19 brings into question mRNA vaccines because they work by producing that protein in your body. New reports are out that the spike protein is causing myocarditis, especially in young males. There are also now warnings of the spike protein damaging capillaries in the body with small clots, a disorder that can surprisingly be fatal. The Moderna vaccine for example has billions of spike proteins (the antigen) in the nano particles to connect them to the ACE2 receptors in the body. Synthetic mRNA contained in the nano particles uses the ribosome of the cells to produce more copies of the spike protein. This adds up to trillions of spike proteins in the body and they get into the bloodstream and can damage organs, even the brain. Similar to the mRNA in vaccines, the spike protein is synthetic. A computer-simulated, chimeric, computer-generated code uploaded by the Chinese at the beginning of the pandemic was given to Moderna to put into an injection so the the body's cells would produce S1 spike protein synthesis which is not the actual virus but a pathogen stimulant.

Then there are risks of vaccine-driven disease enhancement, Th2-immunopathology, autoimmunity, and immune evasion. The FDA's list of known side effects lists neurological brain diseases narcolepsy, cataplexy, tinnitus, and inflammation and demyelination of the central nervous system, especially of the optic nerve and spinal cord. Also of concern is that cases of vaccine-related ADE or immunopathology would be clinically indistinguishable from severe covid 19. This means vaccine-induced spike synthesis and other conditions generated by the vaccine would cause clinical signs of severe covid 19, and these cases would erroneously be counted as new cases of SARS-CoV-2 infections. The vaccines also produce long-lasting specific antibodies to fight covid 19, and these antibodies might out-compete non specific antibodies when coronaviruses are contacted, giving the vaccinated weaker immunity.

One key reason to reject these vaccines is they are immoral. They are similar to Shakespeare's Witches' Brew, full of toxic ingredients. Internet fact checkers claim they contain no toxins even when it is known that the allergen PEG is listed as being in them. It should be noted that no one other than the drug makers knows exactly what is in these vaccines. There has been no independent review to confirm they are what the manufacturers say they are. Here are some of the ingredients the CDC lists as being used in the mRNA vaccines or their manufacture. Polyethylene Glycol, Formaldehyde, Hexadecyltrimethylammonium bromide, Aluminum hydroxide, aluminum phosphate, and aluminum salts, Polysorbate 80 & 20, Glutaraldehyde, Fetal Bovine Serum, Human Diploid Fibroblast, African Green Monkey Kidney Cells, Acetone, DNA from porcine (pig) Circovirus type-1, Human embryonic lung cell cultures from aborted fetuses.

There are also reports of graphene oxide being in the vaccines. Fact checkers say this is not true, but other experts say yes it is in the vaccines, but not revealed because it is a trade secret the manufacturers can hide. Graphene oxide was used as a delivery system to load the mRNA nano particles onto in earlier mRNA vaccines for cancer. It has been used before, is probably being used now and is dangerous to humans.

The vaccines are tainted by abortion as they use cell lines from an aborted fetus to test them, and they can't guarantee that some of the aborted cells are not in them. Animals are also victimized in testing vaccines, making them products of animal cruelty. Kidneys of dying monkeys and cows are used to manufacture the mRNA. They also include human lung cancer cells. There are also nano particles, a new allergen. These nano particles are in fact a delivery system that can be used to deliver many things to the body and its cells. Meaning you have to trust they are delivering what they say they are delivering. So generally speaking, you are being injected with immoral filth. And the spike proteins the vaccines create in order to produce an immune response are dangerous. They get in the bloodstream and can cause blood clots and inflammation in many organs and blood vessels. Meaning the filth you are injected with produces more filth.

No thinking person would trust vaccines that have to be rolled out in a propaganda campaign, while those opposing them are silenced. In places like Canada, they are recruiting people in positions of respect such as priests, rabbis etc. to play as ambassadors to talk reluctant people into taking an experimental vaccine. As well as people in positions of respect they have even called on social media influencers etc. to push vaccines, masks, and extreme lockdowns. This creates a situation where the government and Big Pharma are using an elite to sell for them. As these people are using a script like telemarketers use this is not informing the public, it is selling them a product, using taxpayer dollars to do it.

People are being told via media that they have a religious and moral obligation to get the vaccine. And those who don't buy the moral argument can look at the coercive threats of job loss or not being able to attend events or fly without the shots. On the other side of the coin, governments are not willing to inform people of the risks, nor will they state the truth that no one actually knows the long term risks. A key reason for the Big Pharma drive to vaccinate everyone including children and babies is they are attempting to eradicate the control group. A control group is the standard to which comparisons are made in an experiment. If everyone is vaccinated there will be no worries about the non-vaccinated being revealed as the healthier group.

Media, politicians, influencers even doctors should not be pushing vaccines on people. Neither should vaccines be mandatory. The US Supreme Court has ruled that vaccines are unavoidably unsafe, meaning some people will get severe reactions, even death from them. A free society allows informed consent for all medical procedures. You not government should decide what goes into your body or the body of your child. Another key fact is doctors, pharmacists that recommend vaccines, and even governments that mandate vaccines cannot be held liable. This lack of liability makes vaccines untrustworthy as the manufacturers bear no responsibility. Governments and government-funded healthcare operations and government-funded media have no business using citizens' taxes to make sales for pharmaceutical companies.

The profit-making interests of pharmaceutical companies make recommendations from them on vaccines suspect. Their funding of much of the health industry and donations to politicians make recommendations from our own doctors and government also suspect. People need the right to choose, and to hear other voices that point out the dangers of vaccines. What has happened so far with bad reactions and deaths amounts to a sort of cleanup operation with doctors and medical organizations going out of their way to prove that the vaccine wasn't the cause. Media reports on bad reactions and deaths also work to claim the vaccine wasn't the cause. We have a situation where the medical establishment works hard to inflate covid deaths yet hide vaccine deaths and bad reactions.

There is natural T cell immunity and estimates are that 30 to 40 percent of some populations would have T cell immunity to any covid 19 causing virus as they have had other similar coronaviruses. The broad-spectrum immunity gained by actually fighting off a virus is better and will give you an immune system that will fight any variations or similar viruses. The way a virus is managed is by teaching people how to build health and immunity and by providing early treatment of the sick until such a time as herd immunity is reached. Closure of society is wrong and shows another agenda at play. MRNA vaccines that were not tested as to whether they prevent infection and transmission, but only reduce symptoms, do not provide any form of proven immunity.

People who thought the vaccines would end this are now in for a big disappointment. Vaccines are being used as an argument for more vaccines and to vaccinate everyone. To date they can't claim that these new vaccines provide immunity, only that they will reduce symptoms. The vaccinated still get the virus and spread it and get hospitalized. Vaccines are not the answer to covid 19 if they don't provide immunity in people. Given the risks, known and unknown, mass vaccination should be halted. It is already shown that the vaccine's virus fighting ability quickly abates, leading to calls for the next vaccine. That means vaccines every year or even twice a year, increasing the risk and damage from them to a degree that is far beyond anything acceptable.

We see variants already being used to call for new rounds of lockdowns, clear evidence that the globalists and their health bureaucracy will never let this end, not until such a time as people fight back and stop them. The response to covid 19 has not been all about health or helping people, but about helping an elite create their flawed dream of a World Totalitarian Technocracy.

This pandemic can be viewed as a Classic Scam.

- There is a product, the Virus. If it is real it is not dangerous to the vast majority and death rates and case rates are boosted via massive medical and bureaucratic fraud, plus malpractice and denial of early treatment drugs. The pandemic is fake.
- There is a pyramid structure. All the lockdown, PCR, gene therapy parts of the fraud are run from the top of the pyramid which is WHO, Gates, WEF, CDC, China etc. National health ministers etc. are the next layer down. Most of those lower on the totem pole think the pandemic is real.
- There are those profiting enormously from it. Especially those profiting from testing and the poison gene therapy. Then there are the super rich who gained 2 trillion in wealth in one year of the pandemic. There are the politicians who have used it for political agendas plus the media and social media which profits by forcing people to stay home and consume their products. And lastly, the architects of the Great Reset who want to control the world population with mRNA medical technology and a social credit system as the tools.

- The largest group are the victims. All of those who were robbed of rights, bankrupted, starved, killed, ruined by this massive fraud and coerced into taking injections of mRNA poison. Even God was a victim as people were prohibited from worshipping.
